Crazy Horse Memorial®: 2020 Artist in Residence Program Kicks off in May with Janice Black Elk Jim and Daniel Jim

April 19, 2020 – Crazy Horse, SD – Crazy Horse Memorial® is pleased to announce Rosebud Lakota artist Janice Black Elk Jim and Dine Navajo artist Daniel Jim as the Artists in Residence for the month of May. As Crazy Horse Memorial remains closed to the public in response to COVID-19, we will be holding this residency remotely with Janice and Daniel working from their home studio in Santa Fe, New Mexico, and providing updates throughout the month that will be shared virtually through the social media pages of The Indian Museum of North America®.

The artist couple will be creating saddles from elk leather with sterling silver and turquoise. The public can view all updates on the residency on the Facebook page for The Indian Museum of North America® including weekly artist talks presented every Wednesday at 12:30 p.m. MST.

For more information, please visit www.crazyhorsememorial.org and follow The Indian Museum of North America® on social media or contact Lee Rainboth, Cultural Programs Manager, culturalprograms@crazyhorse.org, phone 605-673-4681.
